Hope For Early End Of Steel Strike Is Increasing

Disclose Secret Parleys Are Held In Steel Strike

Optimism On Possible Early Settlement Heightened By Latest Reports

SETTLEMENT DETAILS BEING CONSIDERED

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Disclosure of secret conferences between steel union and industry representatives heightened the optimism of federal officials today for a settlement of the nationwide steel strike within a few days.

Government experts revealed that CIO President Philip Murray has been conferring in Washington with John A. Stephens, U. S. Steel Corporation vice-president in charge of industrial relations, and Roger Blough, solicitor for the corporation.

Details Closely Guarded
Murray would not comment on his talks with the U. S. Steel representatives and details of the discussions were a closely guarded secret. It was disclosed, however, that the conferees were working on the details of a settlement of the steel strike to be made when the wage-price issue is ironed out.

One federal official predicted that the 750,000 striking steel workers might return to their jobs by next Monday.

He pointed out that the renewal of conferences between the labor and industry representatives indicates that U. S. Steel is willing to accept the government's offer for an increase in steel prices.

Price Agreed Upon
Another government official said that the steel price increase has been agreed upon, but is being held up until the new wage-price policy is announced.

He expressed belief that U. S. Steel already knows what price increase the government has decided upon and feels that it would be satisfactory.

Murray, meanwhile, was to confer with the CIO strike strategy (Continued on Page Two)

PA NEW OBSERVES
Pa. News notes the appearance of a new business name in the city, which has sprung up from the usage of "G. I. Joe," a word which was coined during World War II. The name that attracted Pa. News' eye on a passing car was the "G. I. Joe company."

Workmen have completed razing that of the dwelling that formerly occupied the corner of Spruce and East Washington streets. A post war filling station will occupy the site.

A unique use of the familiar discharge button was noted by Pa. News, Wednesday. One young lady had the emblems transferred into a pair of earrings, causing no little comment by passers by. Upon inquiry, he discovered that the young lady was a dischargee of the WAVE.

Weather conditions overnight resulted in a heavy rain for ashing crews again this morning for streets and highways. Temperature dropped to around 20 degrees above zero and enough snow fell to make some highways and hills slippery.

The supreme allied commander, as final reviewing agent in the case, gave his full approval to the death sentence decreed for Yamashita by an American war crimes tribunal in Manila on the fourth anniversary of Pearl Harbor.

In announcing his concurrence in the sentence, MacArthur described Yamashita's war record as "cruel and wanton."

Escaped Convict Caught In Chase As Car Is Wrecked

Fled Farview Hospital Four Months Ago; Captured Near Washington, Pa.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 7.—(INS)—An escaped convict, who once shot a state patrolman, was under guard in a hospital today after he and a companion wrecked an allegedly stolen automobile while fleeing the police.

Peter Revty, 21, who four months ago escaped from the Farview hospital for the criminal insane, suffered a fractured right leg when the car crashed into the rear end of a gasoline truck near Washington, Pa. His companion, Joseph Karolski, 23, was more seriously hurt, suffering a leg fracture and skull and internal injuries.

Police said the automobile was stolen in Baltimore over a month ago. Revty had a shotgun and a rifle in the car and attempted to reach for one of the weapons when captured.

Grey Bread For U.S. In Order To Send More Wheat Abroad

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—(INS)—The American people, spurred on by President Truman's plea for aid to starving Europe, prepared today to eat grey bread instead of white and send more wheat to their allies.

Reductions in the nation's whiskey and beer supply likewise are in prospect along with self-imposed rationing of scarce foods by retailers and distributors.

One of the first results of the President's food conservation program will be the end of white bread during the "emergency."

Baking industry officials say that within a few weeks the white "staff of life" will be unobtainable.

New "Grey" Loaf
In its place will be the new "grey" loaf—less palatable than white bread but containing the same, or higher, nutritional values.

Ready Air Reserve Planned For Navy

Announce Program For Air Reserve Of 28,700 Officers And Men Starting July 1

TO TRAIN AVIATORS FOR COMBAT DUTY
WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—(INS)—The navy announced plans today for training and maintaining a ready air reserve of 28,700 officers and men beginning next July 1.

Fifteen naval air stations throughout the country have been designated as ready reserve training areas. Pilots will be given about 100 flying hours annually in 48 drill periods.

Present plans call for a read reserve of 6,100 naval and marine aviators, 2,800 ground officers and 19,800 enlisted naval and marine personnel.

Training Stations
Following are the training stations:
New Orleans, La.; St. Louis, Mo.; Willow Grove, Pa.; Minneapolis, Minn.; Squantum, Mass.; New York City; Atlanta, Ga.; Memphis, Tenn.; Dallas, Tex.; Livermore, Calif.; Los Alamitos, Calif.; Grose, Ill.; Michoud, Kas.; Glenview, Ill.; and Columbus, O.

Seven other naval air stations will be used for part-time training of reserves in addition to handling other duties.

Rear Admiral Edward C. Ewen, of Portsmouth, N. H., has been named chief of the naval air reserve training, with headquarters at Glenview, Ill.

Maintain Fleet Efficiency
Principal aim of the program is to maintain the fleet efficiency of young aviators trained for combat duty. Pilots will spend two weeks aboard carriers each year.

The 15 stations will have available the most modern aircraft, equipment and techniques as they are developed. Members of the ready reserve will receive pay for attending drills.

According to the navy, the ready reserve will be kept on a peak training basis so units could be transferred to active duty with the fleet on a moment's notice.

Vice Admiral Arthur W. Radford, new deputy chief of naval operations for air, told a news conference he expected a turnover of approximately 1,000 pilots per year under the program.

Radford said nearly 40,000 navy and marine corps pilots will be eligible for ready reserve training through demobilization sometime this fall.

New York Has 'Dimout' And Fuel Rationing

Drastic Action Taken As Result Of Tugboat And Barge Workers Strike

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—(INS)—Fuel rationing and dimout restrictions more drastic than wartime controls were imposed in New York today as 3,500 tugboats and barge men continued their four-day strike in the face of government operation.

Army and navy tugs were expected to start moving fuel oil and coal into the city today in an effort to alleviate a fuel shortage so acute that Mayor William O'Dwyer announced closing tomorrow of the city's schools unless the strike is settled.

Emergency Proclamations
Emergency proclamations issued by the mayor completely cut off fuel deliveries to all amusement places, strictly rationing supplies to public utilities and hospitals, turns off the heat in subway trains, limits all other interior heating to 60 degrees and bans all outdoor electrical displays.

Director Lawrence C. Turner of the ODT Waterway Division, Federal manager of the government-seized tug and barge companies, announced orders to the army and navy to take over the struck tugs and barges and said the armed forces immediately made 45 government-owned tugs available.

An ominous note was injected into the picture when President Joseph P. Ryan of the AFL International (Continued on Page Two)

President Hopes Food Rationing Will Not Return

Possibility Discussed In Connection With Necessity Of Feeding Europe

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—(INS)—President Truman said today that if it is necessary for the nation to return to food rationing to prevent starvation in Europe the nation will do so.

The President said, however, that he hopes the new program of food conservation which he announced yesterday afternoon will make it unnecessary to ration either meat or other foods.

At his news conference today the President was asked:
"Will we have to come to meat rationing?"

I hope not, was his reply. Then he added that if rationing becomes necessary to keep people from starving he thinks we should put it back into effect.

The President then asserted that it is un-American to have any idea that we would let the people starve.

Mr. Truman said that we will not be able to feed our war enemies quite as well as the people in liberated countries and our war allies. He said that they should not be as well fed, but that we are not going to stand by and let them starve either.

The President said that a cut in the whole European ration has been necessary.

SHOPPING WORRIES GIRL 'GIANT'

It's tough enough to get nylons, shoes and other routine items that comprise the average woman's wardrobe. Imagine, then, the headaches of Elizabeth Farmer, 19, Carmi, Ill., who is seven feet tall (in her stocking feet, when she can get the stockings), weighs 243 pounds, and wears size 17 shoes—which have to be specially made for her. Just how high Elizabeth towers can be seen in this picture.

Japanese Prison Camp Head On Trial In China

SHANGHAI, Feb. 7.—(INS)—A Japanese prison camp head and a Jap civilian interpreter were arraigned before a war crimes tribunal in Shanghai today on charges of being responsible for the deaths and beatings of hundreds of American prisoners in China.

Those arraigned were ex-Lieutenant Tori Miki, superintendent of a prisoner of war camp near Mukden, and Isamu Ishihara, senior Jap civilian interpreter at two Shanghai prison camps.

Miki, arrested in Shanghai after a three-months hunt through Manchuria, Korea, Japan and Central China is accused of responsibility in the Mukden camp deaths of more than two hundred Americans, including Bataan Death March veterans.

Specifically, Miki was accused of the death of Seaman William B. Jones of Santa Monica, Calif., a member of the crew of the U. S. S. Canopus. Jones was beaten repeatedly with club, bayonet, rifle and saber and confined to a freezing guardhouse without adequate food, clothing and medical attention.

The charges against Ishihara were lodged by many of the 1,200 American prisoners of war at the Woosung and Kingwan camps, including Wake marines, personnel of the submarine, and military guards at the American embassy in Peiping and the Shanghai consulates.

Specifically, Ishihara is accused of the beatings and torture of Sgt. John C. Munick, 1710 Woodmont, New Kensington, Pa.; Sgt. Michael J. Schick, Cleveland; Pfc. Lorel J. Bragg, 111 Riverside drive, Richmond, W. Va., and numerous others.

The defendants will be tried separately.

President Has New Plan For Settling Strikes

Temporary Adjustment Of Wage, Price And Stabilization Policy Involved

HOPES ALL MAJOR STRIKES WILL END

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—President Truman declared today that he will announce a plan within a day or two which he hopes will settle all major strikes.

The chief executive told a news conference that his plan involves a temporary adjustment of the government's wage, price and stabilization policy to meet the situation which now faces the nation.

Not To Scrap Entire Program
Mr. Truman emphasized that the plan will not be a new wage-price policy which will scrap the entire existing economic stabilization program.

He said that we all know in this country today that what is needed is mass production.

Shortly after his morning news conference, the president scheduled a conference with Philip Murray, president of the CIO. Murray will see the president at 3:30 p. m. EST today. Murray and Secretary of Labor Schweitzerbach also conferred with the president on Monday.

The present situation of labor-management difficulties, he continued, will adjust itself when the wheels of production are turning full speed.

Food Production Solution
Under the condition of full production, the president said, there would be no need for a change in the wage and price policy.

Mr. Truman said that the first wage-price formula would have worked ideally if there had not been the stumbling block of labor-management wage disputes that held up the reversion program.

What the president indicated today was that his new plan will be one to prime the pumps of production to get production going to the point that the normal economic factors of supply and demand and wages and management profits will adjust themselves normally.

VACATION TRIP NOT POSTPONED SAYS PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—(INS)—President Truman said today that he plans to take his brief vacation trip to south Florida next week regardless of whether or not the steel strike is settled by that time.

Mr. Truman said he has no intention of cancelling his Florida trip.

Three other students were exonerated. The student fined was William C. Dofford, an ex-serviceman. He was arrested in an Easton nightclub and the parking meter was found wrapped in a blanket in his car, police said.

FALSE TEETH STOLEN

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 7.—(INS)—Police today caught a thief with 280 teeth too many and an umbrella.

The search was launched after Arthur Platt, of Philadelphia, reported ten sets of false teeth and the umbrella were stolen from his parked car.

The Unwanted UNO Center

The New York-Connecticut area selected did not ask to be made the capital of the United Nations, hence the people who live there cannot be blamed for complaining against a prospect which would force thousands of them to abandon their homes and seek residence elsewhere. The protest is the more easily understood when it is remembered that many of the houses threatened with destruction have stood for generations and been in the ownership of the same families during all that time.

If the recommended site is approved, the towns themselves, several of which would be taken over almost wholly for the UNO site, have reason to be disturbed. The peace and quiet which were their charm would be succeeded by the bustle and bustle of business and by the coming and going of men and women from all the countries of the world.

The hills that were green in summer and white with snow in winter would be covered with office buildings, assembly halls, hotels and restaurants. It does seem that a site could be found where there would be no necessity to do violence to so many long established and fully developed towns and cities.

Large tracts of vacant land exist not too far from both New York and Boston. The initial work of clearing them of their forests and of installing utilities may be substantial and costly, but not so expensive as the loss of goodwill of the kind now being experienced. In the long run it may be cheaper, because no towns would then be deprived of the revenue which is going to be taken away from those in the area selected when tax-free buildings are erected by the UNO.

Why Strikes Are Never Won

A survey by the New York State Chamber of Commerce of the high costs of strikes to innocent bystanders, non-strikers who have no direct interest in the disputes, is of timely interest to a long-suffering public.

The basis for the study is the building elevator strike in New York City last September which paralyzed business in the mid-town area until Governor Dewey intervened.

The brief tie-up caused an average wage loss of $28.52 to 1944.564 non-striking employees in other businesses, or a total of about $55,000,000. More than 54,000 business concerns suffered an average loss of $15,000.

This strike chiefly affected a single community and was confined directly to a single occupation and union. The figures give a slight idea of the costs of a strike in the steel industry which is nationwide.

A difference of $1.50 a week has been keeping that industry and its workers from agreement. According to Mr. Fairless, president of United States Steel, "for each week of work lost on strike the steel worker would have to work about nine months at the higher figure to come out even."

A month ago it was figured that with an immediate return of General Motors employees to work, on the basis of the wage increase offered by the company, it would take them 53 weeks to restore their financial status as of November 21 when they quit their jobs.

All such computations leave out of account the loss to the country at large from these recurrent tie-ups of production which are bringing ruinous inflation nearer every day, suggests the Philadelphia Inquirer. When will all learn that no one ever "wins" a strike, that everybody loses when the wheels of industry are stalled? How to avoid these threats to the common prosperity remains the nation's foremost problem.

Calling All Planets

Achievement of man-made contact with a celestial body promises to unleash a whole chain of scientific realities that thus far have existed only in the imagination. Out of the war has emerged, not only the breathtaking fact of atomic utility, but also radar, a new means of communication so startling in its implications that it may lead man into the stars.

The penetration of the earth's atmosphere by radar as demonstrated by the now famous echo that came back from the moon ranks in importance with Morse's discovery of the telegraph and Marconi's demonstration of radio. The "space ship" heretofore confined to the comic strips, is regarded as a coming reality. Although no one now predicts that humans will ride in them, the Army Signal Corps foresees robots that will venture thousands of miles from the earth to record data from other worlds.

With a response from the moon, the Signal Corps will set about to seek contact with Mars, that fascinating planet that some scientists contend is inhabited. Lieut. Col. John H. DeWitt Jr. says, "We should be able to say 'Hello' and hear the moon say 'Hello back.' Imagine the stir here on earth if a 'Hello' should be beamed to Mars, and the reply should be: 'Hello yourself, what's cookin'?"

Bowles Hopeful Revised Price Line Can Be Held

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Through long worrisome hours, the President and his advisers struggled to find a wage-price formula that would make possible a settlement of the current steel strike and yet not lift the general price level too abruptly.

It has been a little like the search of the ancient alchemists for a formula that would transform base metal into gold. In other words, the task was an all but impossible one.

A major obstacle was the square-shouldered figure of OPA Administrator Chester Bowles. Bowles, at the outset of the discussions, was dead-set against a price increase appreciably above $4 a ton for steel.

He had gone to Charleston, S. C., for a much-needed rest. His mood before he left was one of discouragement. It seemed to him that possibly his usefulness was at an end. Summoned back to Washington for the wage-price discussions, this mood had not been lightened.

Faced with U. S. Steel's insistence that a price increase considerably above $4 a ton was necessary to cover an 18 1/2 cents-a-ton wage boost, Bowles was prepared to be stubborn or even to resign.

But Bowles had a long talk with Bernard M. Baruch, who had come in as an unofficial trouble-shooter. At the end of that talk, which covered the whole field of price control, Bowles was convinced that he should stay on the job to hold a revised price line.

Unless plans are suddenly changed, Bowles will go before Congress this week to recommend a wage-price formula which provides a price increase sufficient to cover the President's wage recommendation. Inevitably this will represent a kind of retreat on Bowles' part.

He was persuaded, however, that this was the only course open. His hope now is that the revised wage-price line can be held for a year and that during that year production will climb to such high levels that a flood of goods will force prices down, or at least hold them steady, and thereby check the trend toward inflation.

During the course of the discussions, Philip Murray of the CIO offered to give a no-strike pledge during the 12-month period that the new formula would be effective.

There were some among the President's advisers who felt that more than a pledge was needed. The discussion turned for a time on a wage-price freeze enacted into law. From the first debate on price control at the outset of the war, Baruch favored such a freeze. But it was considered politically impossible to get such a freeze passed by Congress even in the emergency of war and, therefore, no one had very much hope that the present Congress would give it serious consideration.

In the wage-price formula, arrived at with so much pain and travel proves acceptable all around. It will undoubtedly be hailed by organized labor as a victory. But there is a big question as to whether labor has used its formidable power wisely.

The argument advanced by the CIO economists to justify the original 30 per cent wage demands in motors, steel, oil and other major industries was the familiar one that it is necessary to sustain the purchasing power of the pass of the workers so they can buy the products of the machine. The fact is, however, that there are great reservoirs of excess purchasing power and will be for many months to come.

If the effect of the wage increase is chiefly to inflate prices, then labor's victory will be short-lived. For it will be erased by a rise in the price of all the things that workers must buy.

One question that arose in the discussions at the White House was whether a year was not wholly inadequate period for the new formula.

It is hard to believe that the big reservoirs of purchasing power will be exhausted a year from now. The probability is that they will still be pushing up the demand for all consumer goods. And that could mean a new wage-price scramble which might do even more damage 12 months from now than the latter dispute that now seems close to a solution.

Great Game Of Politics

Present Is No Time To Curl Up

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—THE most recent and reliable polls show that while Mr. Truman has lost some ground with Republicans he still retains his peak popularity among Democrats in the country and that a majority of the people as a whole approve of him. But that is not the Washington view.

HERE in Congress among the politicians of both parties, inside as well as outside the Administration—and among newspaper men—there is a very different feeling. The President is criticized by these for his big things and little things; for what he does and for what he fails to do. Right now the attack centers upon the Truman appointments, particularly those of the somewhat unsavory Mr. Ed Pauley and Mr. George Allen. While these are full justification for criticism of these and of Mr. Truman, too, the extent to which it is carried beyond makes it seem almost like a calculated campaign of presidential disparagement. And some of it is petty, strained and not well based.

Through the critics are not always in accord, their general theme is the Truman inadequacy. What they differ about are the details. For example, some of our professional liberals with CIO connections and intimate touch with certain notable Cabinet members, strain to agree that "business" has moved in and "taken charge." This is repeated and repeated though it seems in direct conflict with the facts and certainly clashes with the contention of another group which asserts that, with the President's approval, Mr. Haneggan is bringing in to the Democratic committee for policy-forming purposes some of the young and ardent "advanced thinkers" of the Roosevelt regime.

THE main purpose of these is openly stated to be the elimination as a presidential adviser of the unfortunate Mr. John E. Snyder, against whom a constant propaganda has been directed by the labor liberals in an effort to make him out a sinister as well as a stupid figure. Of course, Mr. Snyder is nothing of the sort and the attempt to make this quite average, wholly well-meaning, entirely orthodox and very capable St. Louis banker appear a malign influence is absurd. What it really seems to be is a part of the Truman attack which is designed to paint the President as a weak and inadequate little man, influenced toward the right by one set of advisers who are pro-business and then swing to the left by another set, who are strongly CIO and very radically inclined.

The weakness of a free land, where men trust one another is that foreign agents are free to trick it into serving their master.

But if relatives notice he is acting queer, and do nothing aren't they responsible for the killing he does?

The general idea of both seems to be to picture Mr. Truman as a poor excuse for a President. (Continued on Page Nine)

The Parent Problem

By GARRY C. MYERS, Ph. D.

STATISTICS ON LARGE FAMILIES

CHILDREN differ widely in many ways, even in the same family. Even identical twins do. However, it is not always easy to ascertain the real sources of these differences.

My good friend, Mrs. John York, of Hartford, Connecticut, a grandmother who writes a local newspaper column weekly, herself calls me to task about once a year for something I have written. Like a good parent or teacher, she begins with some approvals and works up to her disapprovals gently.

Convincing Point
In a recent column I makes a telling point which, though I dislike to admit it, is convincing. She tells me I don't make enough of individual differences among children, even in the same family.

To quote: "A mother of six says each one is so entirely different that having the six is no help in understanding any one of them. This, however, strikes me as too strong. There are certain basic principles which, to some degree, apply to all children."

All children, for example, tend to do or repeat what promises satisfaction and to avoid what promises discomfort, though they differ widely in what proves most satisfying or uncomfortable. Besides, the way one child responds depends to a large degree on how another child, especially a brother or sister, responds.

Imitate Traits
While one child may imitate the good traits in a brother or sister, he also might and often does become bad because another child in the family is so good. One child may lag at school because a brother or sister forces on so fast ahead.

Even though the lagging child may actually have the greater native power to learn. Having six children and observing carefully the ways in which they are different should enable a parent to see the other ways in which they are alike.

Yet, Grandma York's point still has weight. We parents and teachers need to study each child in his mental, emotional, social and spiritual development, with a view always to capitalizing his weaknesses.

In regard to reading and spelling difficulties, Mrs. York regrets that I have not more often urged teachers and parents to make sure the child can attack and pronounce syllables in the case of long words, emphasize phonics more. She's right. Improvement in this direction is to be expected.

Referring to my frequent plea for appreciating and stimulating the child's imagination, she writes: "I think it is a wise plan to ask a"

Writer Thinks Atom Bomb Has Press Agent
Commotion Created Lately Has Been Great
President Has To Wield Stick And Be Hard

By HELEN ESSARY
(Central Columnist)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Everywhere you look or listen, there's a sign of the times. Examples?—A correspondent from Hollywood has asked me:

"Has the atom bomb got a press agent? If the atom bomb has a press agent, my Hollywood friend wants to write that fellow or fellows a warm, heartfelt and envious congratulation. He says when the press agent or agents finish plotting the atom bomb waiting out in Hollywood, if ever a discovery, kicked up a commotion—real or manufactured—the atom bomb has done it. Everything connected with the bomb is magnified in importance. There is that new story about the bomb creating a wind of 1,000-mile velocity. Why, a plane just flew from the west coast east at a speed of 400 miles an hour without stirring up so much excitement."

The enrollment in scientific courses in the colleges is greater than it has been for generations of alma maters. Again the fault of the atom bomb. Unhappily, though, the average young man is having difficulty getting into any college by the science course or any other route. So many enrollments are being taken by the veterans.

The new bandwagon to success is by way of the air or the radio. Half the men who were "in the war effort" are sleeping out to well-paid, pleasant posts in radio companies.

Another sign of the times—The gift tables on which the brides of pre-war years used to crowd their wedding presents are as bare as Mother Hubbard's cupboard. Instead of offerings of silver and glass and china, you'll find a pile of gift certificates. A gift certificate to the few unimpaired is that slip of paper with which a shop testifies someone has paid a good sum into its coffers and that some day, somehow, when strikes are over and production starts, you may come down and buy something you really want.

My final sign of the times indicates the high cost of living or inflation or uncalculated nerve. I was engaged in buying a hat. A spring hat composed mostly of fluff, fashion and a gift certificate. I tilted the hat over my new pompadour. "Not too bad," I said. "How much is the hat?"

Only $29.50, madam. And let me show you madam, to make the hat firm on the head, it requires a pin. And madam, give me the pin!"

Signs Of The Times
A gay little story, possibly a sign of the times is being told by Mr. Alexina Romine, in New York City. She is a parcel delivery man turned into Mrs. Romine's gift shop in Alexandria, Va., and said, as he banged down a heavy parcel:

"I've had an experience that is just too much. I rang the bell of a house on Prince street and the young woman who answered the door said haughtily:

"This is the residence of Lt. (jg) Waldo S. Smith. He's my husband and he told me to tell you and everyone else that as a lieutenant (jg) he does not want any packages delivered at his front door. Will you kindly take your package around to the back?"

And what did I do then?" continued the delivery man, fuming some more. "I said, Young lady, you just tell that lieutenant (jg) of yours that I, the delivery man, was a commander until day before yesterday when I got out of the service. That I'm now a good job with this company and I'm learning the business of the delivery route. He's darn lucky to have me, a commander, come to his house by any door. And I banged the stuff whatever it was, and stalked off. These whippersnappers! By George, there'll be a lot of his kind now that the war is over forgetting how, instead of giving orders, they took them, and jumped to obey."

Some Public Answers To Mail May Elicit Interest Of Readers

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—It seems to be human nature to be interested in other people's mail, especially if it concerns subjects which concern you.

Which is as good a reason as any for answering some in this somewhat public manner:

To Ex-Colonel Carl L. Phinney of Dallas, Tex., Ex-Captain Joel Westbrooke of Hopacong, N. J., and all other former members of the Thirty-Sixth Infantry Division who have written about their request for an investigation of the Rapido river debacle in Italy two years ago—

Don't Be Discouraged

Don't be discouraged yet. Some powerful support for your probe may crop up in a surprising corner—within War department ranks!

For the first time in the memory of man, the "West Point Protective Association"—that unofficial brotherhood which specializes in taking care of "its own" military academy graduates—may turn its back on a fellow member.

Naturally, they'll still go through selective motions publicly. Traditionally, know, old boy. But if a congressional investigating committee has heard enough, it might pose a "mandate" of Gen. George S. Patton's fellow regular Army officers in the "back" some scathing letter concerning not only the Rapido but also other costly campaigns throughout the Italian campaign.

That number includes some "old timers"—both on the active and those conveniently retired.

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot seem to take a chance with any medicine. Creomulsion, the "cough" medicine, is the only one that attacks the cause of the trouble, soothes and expels germ, soothes and aids nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends each wood grain of special process with other wood grain medicines for coughs, colds, and bronchitis.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

EYES EXAMINED

Staten Island, N. Y., veteran of both world wars—

You are quite right. Surplus typewriters should not be sold to big private wholesalers ahead of veterans who are authorized dealers. The Surplus Property Administration is checking into that report of such sales in Philadelphia, and will try to crack down the exact story on that typewriter the serial number of which you listed.

More on the same subject, this time to an anonymous servicemen now stationed on the East Coast—There already is an investigation underway to see if black market phonies, parading as veterans, are buying surplus Army cars and trucks under false pretenses, and then selling them to ex-soldiers at two and three times the legal price. If so, somebody's gonna be sorry.

Doing Good Job

To John P. Whitehead and other officials of the Los Angeles, Calif., veterans service center—

Thanks for the invitation to visit your set-up. And congratulations on doing one of the most progressive jobs in the country in helping the returning servicemen. Plenty of other American communities could take a leaf out of your book. And that idea isn't original with this writer. Such people as Bernard Baruch, General Omar Bradley and a few others you may know of around town said it first.

To Edward Murphy, ex-shipyard worker of Corona Queens, N. Y., a non-veteran whose Irish blood is boiling for the boys—

"A couple of congressmen are interested in your description of discrimination against veterans in the various shipbuilding trades and the trick used to force them into jobs at lower pay than other guys with similar experience are getting—just because they need work so badly. You may get a chance to help the boys out yet."

To Easton Committee

To the citizen's committee of Easton, Pennsylvania—

This was a beautiful brochure you sent containing the outstanding advantages of the Easton area as a home for the United States Organization. It would have been a pleasure to have visited and seen a column about the mountains, woods, flowers, streams, lakes and beautiful falls of Pennsylvania.

Unfortunately, your pamphlet arrived the same day that the U. S. ship-seeking committee set up in Connecticut.

And even Sergeant Eddie Schreiner, formerly of the 100th Division and now of the Bronx, N. Y., who has decided to be a nudist, especially in wartime, but is beginning to worry.

Sorry, Eddie, but it beats the heck out of what's become of all the clothing. If I knew, I wouldn't still be wearing this battered G.I. trenchcoat!

Display Depicts Life Of Lincoln

Old Croton Honor Roll Turned Into Display Case By Croton Students For Special Events

An eye-catching display portraying the life of Abraham Lincoln, whose birthday anniversary will be commemorated next Tuesday, can be seen on the former honor roll of show case just outside the Croton Avenue school building.

The work, which was done by the students of the 5-1 class of the school, reveals the various settings of Lincoln's life from the humble log cabin to the large house that he resided in at Springfield, Ill.

Posters depicting such scenes from Lincoln's life as the rail splitter studying by the fireside, his log cabin birthplace, his large house in Springfield and other kindred subjects are shown in the display case.

An outstanding feature of the project is a large hand drawn map, made by the students, tracing the movements of the Lincoln family through Kentucky, Indiana and Illinois. Each area where the Lincoln's resided is plainly marked by the drawing of whatever type of house they dwelled in.

Miss Ruth Drescher, teacher of the 5-1 class, read the story of the life of Abraham Lincoln to the boys and girls, then they in turn began work on the unique project.

In memory of Washington's birthday, which will be observed two weeks from tomorrow, the 5-2 class will construct a similar display.

The Civil Aeronautics administration under various names, has been the U. S. government regulatory body for civil aviation since 1926.

Endocrine has helped thousands to recapture youthful look of face and throat

Eight years ago, eminent scientists gave the world ENDOCREME, a sensational contribution to the beauty of the feminine face and throat. Today, ENDOCREME is aiding thousands to regain the charm of a youthful skin to a degree hitherto thought impossible. This is done by helping to improve the skin itself, not merely its superficial appearance. ENDOCREME, you know, is the only face cream that contains ACTIVOL. This precious ACTIVOL is a scientific replacement for woman's own natural skin-vitalizing substance. When you apply ENDOCREME, it is absorbed by the skin and helps to restore the normal growth of cells and tissues. It thus aids the skin to recapture its youthful freshness, firmness, smoothness and allure. What bigger value can one get for her cosmetic dollars than this? You, too, should try ENDOCREME. Many report truly astonishing results in only 30 days.

Representatives of several of the city's social service agencies met Wednesday in the office of the Veterans' Advisory Council in the City Hall to discuss the handling of transient cases and the possibility of setting up a social service clearing house.

Limitations of each organization are being explained to the others, in order to eliminate misunderstanding when certain cases are referred to one place or the other. The group included persons from the Red Cross, Salvation Army, Department of Public Assistance, Veterans of Foreign Wars and the City Rescue Mission.

Another meeting will be called in two weeks, according to Jack Preston, executive secretary of the Veterans' Advisory Council.

An aid in helping small scratches and cuts in linoleum to be inconspicuous, is to first wash the linoleum, let it dry thoroughly, then rub in boiled linseed oil. Wipe off any oil left on the surface with a soft cloth, and let it dry 48 hours before washing again.

Would Prevent Johnson From Getting Pension

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—(INS.)—Legislation was introduced Wednesday in the house which would bar former Federal Judge Albert W. Johnson of Lewisburg, Pa., from ever receiving a government pension.

The action was taken by Rep.

Kefauver (D) Tenn., chairman of a subcommittee, which investigated Johnson's official conduct in the middle district court of Pennsylvania, on behalf of the judiciary committee.

Kefauver's bill was introduced shortly after the judiciary committee voted 12 to 8 to accept the report condemning the actions of the former federal jurist.

The legislation provides that Johnson shall be barred from receiving the lifetime pension to which a federal judge who has served 10 years and reached the age of 70 is entitled.

Johnson, an appointee of President Coolidge, is 72 and served 25 years as a federal jurist.

The legislation is retroactive to July 13, 1945, when Johnson appeared before the Kefauver subcommittee and signed a statement renouncing his right to a federal pension.

A newspaper-reading lesson will be part of the curriculum of every school in Brandenburg Province, Germany.

Student Check Shows Fourth Of Last June Class Is In Service

Survey Of 1945 Seniors Is Made By Business Club To Discover
Graduates' Employment

Almost one-fourth, or 24.5 per cent of the graduates of the Senior High School class of June '45, went into the armed forces after graduation, a survey made by the school's Business Efficiency club has determined.

The next highest percentages were those of the students going into clerical work in stores, 18.4 per cent; into offices as stenographers, telephone operators, et cetera, 16.6 per cent; and colleges, 14.1 per cent.

How Many Followed Plans
This survey was made by the club to determine how many graduates were fortunate enough to secure the particular type of work in which they were interested, and to find out whether those who planned to go to college had been able to do so. Information thus obtained is to be used in connection with the guidance program of the school.

Data was contributed by high school students from all home rooms, and was collected also by personal contact with families of some of the graduates.

Other classifications show 10.5 per cent of the students at home, either unemployed or married; 8.0 per cent in industry; 3.3 per cent in service occupations such as restaurants, garages, theaters, et cetera; 1.5 per cent doing post graduate work; 1.2 per cent in vocational schools; 9 per cent in professional work; and 9 per cent who have either moved or died.

Will Aid In Guidance

In the future, information of this sort, gathered over a period of time, is expected to not only assist in the guidance program, to also to enable the school personnel to develop curricula which will conform to the trends in employment.

The girls who made the survey, under the supervision of Miss Myrtle Lord, are senior honor students taking commercial subjects.

Sgt. Richard S. Muse Gets Army Discharge

HARRISBURG, Feb. 7.—(INS)—The Pennsylvania Historical and Museum commission will meet at the state capitol today to outline recommendations to Gov. Edward Martin for the improvement of historic shrines.

Dr. Donald A. Cadzow, executive director, said a committee would consider recommendations for improvements of "about a dozen" shrines including the flagship Niagara at Erie, William Penn's mansion at Pennsbury, Bucks county, the Ephrata Cloisters, and Old Economy in Beaver county.

Improvement of Daniel Boone homestead in Berks county, Printz Park in Delaware county, Cornwall Iron Furnace in Lebanon county and Pottsgrove Mansion in Montgomery also will be considered, he added.

Cadzow explained that the eight-member commission, headed by attorney general James H. Duff, would select sites for the first 500 markers to be placed along highways near historic spots. The commission has received about 800 applications for markers, he added.

Penn State Prof To Visit Far-Flung Family Members

Dean Emeritus Of School Of Agriculture To Take Three-Month Visit Tour

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., Feb. 7.—Dr. S. W. Fletcher, dean emeritus of the School of Agriculture at the Pennsylvania State College, hopes on a cross-country trip to see every member of his far-flung family.

Living in different sections of the country are five sons, one daughter, and a daughter-in-law. The daughter-in-law is Mrs. Emmett Fletcher, Washington, D.C., whose husband lost his life while serving as a dive bomber pilot in the navy.

Emmett was one of four Fletcher boys to serve in the armed services. Dr. Fletcher and his wife plan to visit the other three on their motor trip to the coast. All the Fletcher children are graduates of Penn State, where Dr. Fletcher has been associated with the School of Agriculture for nearly 30 years.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

deed. At this time, hardly anyone in the Capital has a kind word for him. It has reached the stage where a cheap labor leader like Walter Reuther can come here and, in talking to a group of newspaper men, speak of the President of the United States in a tone of pitying contempt—without rebuke. It is true that Mr. Truman is far from the strongest President we have had. But he is by no means the weakest. Of course, he lacks the dramatic showmanship and egoism of his immediate predecessor which covered up so much incompetency. But he is not at all the dreadful nincompoop so many of the smart boys here have never peered over some of the utterly unfit Roosevelt appointments are trying to portray Mr. Truman.

THE present unhappy state of the nation is not his fault. He inherited the horrible mess into which our domestic affairs are now from Mr. Roosevelt, whose policies and politics were directly responsible. He made his first and worst mistake by pledging himself to carrying out the Roosevelt policies without being the kind of man who at heart believed in their soundness. This has prevented him from firmly grappling with the realities of the economic situation or seeing clearly that from the political angle the CIO-Roosevelt alliance is becoming more of a liability than an asset. Nor is he helped either economically or politically by the sort of advice he has been getting from two of his Cabinet members, who are becoming generally identified as "sources" for the left-wing journalistic sharpshooters.

PERHAPS Mr. Truman may find a way to pull himself out of this situation. Perhaps he can put an end to the "bad press" with which he is now afflicted and bust up what almost seems a political and press effort to "gang up" on him. All he needs are a few breaks. It is the sort of thing that can change very quickly. Meanwhile, there are two things which he can do for himself. One is to stop deprecating himself. Too often he plaintively says to indiscreet persons that he never wanted to be President and that he wishes some one else had the job. Men to whom he makes this and kindred remarks repeat them. The effect is not good. There is no sense in saying these things even if they were true. They weaken his position and lend color to some of the slurs aimed at him.

THE other thing the President can—and should—do is not to let the ordeal to which he is now subjected—and which undoubtedly is hard to take—cause him further to lose confidence in himself or break his spirit. That not only would be disastrous to him but it would be calamitous for the country. He has got to stand up and fight. There is no time for self-pity. He can't afford to curl up. If he refuses to curl and keeps on doing the best he can, the polls are likely to continue registering popular approval despite the onslaught of the politicians and the writers.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

country, which ought to be providing desperately needed jobs and producing badly wanted goods, are between the upper and nether millstones—government dictatorship above and labor dictatorship below. The wheels of reconversion are turning slowly or not at all. National income drops—and tax revenues will be lacking next March. Hundreds of millions are lost in wages and more hundreds of millions in trade. Worst of all, the failure to produce wanted and needed commodities is creating scarcities of goods in the face of billions of consumer funds on hand, is driving straight and swiftly toward inflation.

Meanwhile, in the midst of our grandiose schemes to buy international good will with gifts, loans, tariff concessions and various other financing schemes, we read that Great Britain is already shipping automobiles to many other countries and that the foreign aircraft industry now employs more than six times as many persons as that of the United States. What is happening to the "foreign trade" which was to be such a factor in making 60,000,000 jobs?

When are we going to start real reconversion, begin making jobs and bring on the prosperity necessary to realize that one hundred and fifty billion dollar national income?

THE PARENT PROBLEM

child if he wants a fairy story or a true story. My grandson Albert did not know that my stories were true when I told him of the different zones and climates. "Is that really true? We had it in school, but I didn't know it was true."

"A neighbor's child did not believe the Bible was true. She said, 'I know nothing ever happened like that.' Her mother did not know what to say to the young infidel. I told her to tell the child much of the Bible was written in parables, which are much like fairy stories. They have been called earthly stories with a heavenly meaning, written so that people would remember the story and sometimes they would think what it meant."

"I well remember my reaction when I first learned that the Creator did not make this earth in six days, that it was formed slowly in six periods of time."

I recall a similar experience. While not all readers would accept Mrs. York's observations in the last two paragraphs, I would and I like the effective way she put them.

A ptarmigan is any of the various species of grouse of northern regions, having completely feathered feet.

First Gas Tax Payments To Be Made To Cities

HARRISBURG, Feb. 7.—(INS)—State Secretary of Highways John U. Shroyer announced today the first quarterly payments of gasoline tax rebates would be made March 1 to the 2562 municipalities.

Under legislation passed by the General Assembly during its 1945 session, $17,000,000 of the motor license fund is earmarked for equitable distribution between cities, boroughs and first class townships as well as second class townships. Each group will receive approximately $4,200,000 during 1946.

The distributions, computed on a mileage basis, will amount to $336.56 a mile for each of the 21,627 miles of highway in cities, boroughs and first class townships, Shroyer said. These units will enjoy state aid for the first time, he added.

Girl Is Strangled At Columbia, Mo.

COLUMBIA, Mo., Feb. 7.—(INS)—Mary Lou Jenkins, 20-year-old college graduate, was found slain Wednesday in her home at Columbia.

Miss Jenkins had been strangled during the night in a violent struggle with an assailant who entered the house by crawling through a rear window, police said.

An electric light extension cord was wound tightly around the girl's neck.

Miss Jenkins' pajama-clad body was found on the floor of the living room by her mother, Mrs. Jack Jenkins, when she returned home after spending the night at the home of an elderly couple where Mrs. Jenkins is employed as a practical nurse.

Miss Jenkins was graduated recently from Stephens College for Women in Columbia.

Compensation Asked By Steel Strikers

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 7.—(INS)—A United States employment executive today reported that only 63 per cent of the striking steelworkers in the Pittsburgh district have applied for unemployment compensation.

In nearby McKeesport, the executive revealed 22,000 workers, or nearly 90 per cent, had applied for jobless pay.

He indicated that the workers feel the strike will be settled before their claims "become compensable on March 11."

Plan To Expose Japanese Naval Propaganda Work

TOKYO, Feb. 7.—(INS)—General MacArthur's headquarters ordered the Japanese government today to submit a complete report on all ramifications of Japanese naval intelligence during the war.

Specifically requested were details of all foreign "enterprises, societies, groups and individuals cooperating with naval intelligence," for the purpose of collecting information and spreading propaganda.

The allied order was designed to expose the roots of the Japanese naval intelligence network throughout the world.

Spreckles Contends Settlement Made To New York Show Girl

Sugar Hair Says Beatrice Webb Was Paid $25,000 And Another Sum Of $750

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 7.—(INS)—Sugar Hair Adolph B. Spreckles, Jr., contends in an answer on file in superior court today, that he already has paid off all claim for damages that New York showgirl Beatrice "Bebe" Webb might have against him.

The actress is suing for $250,000 as recompense for injuries she says Spreckles inflicted upon her in the course of five severe beatings.

The young heir flatly denied all of her allegations and, in addition, introduced photostatic copies of documents to show that he settled in full with her last September 4, two days before he eloped to Arizona with film actress Kay Williams.

The documents consisted of a check for $25,000, a check for $750 and a release from "all claims of every kind".

HARRISBURG, Feb. 7.—(INS)—Plans for the installation of an electric roll call system in the House of Representatives at the State Capitol moved forward today as the Department of Property and Supplies received an unofficial low bid of $57,450 for the work.

The bid was submitted by the Howard E. Foley Co., of Harrisburg. The 1945 General Assembly appropriated $75,000 for installation of the system which will permit members to vote on bills by merely pressing buttons at their seats.

Call Crack-Down On Bootleg Mining

HARRISBURG, Feb. 7.—(INS)—The anthracite committee called on the state and federal governments today to crack down on bootleg mining.

Secretary Daniel L. Corgan pointed out that the death toll from mine accidents was six times greater in "bootleg" operations than in the legitimate industry and urged "bootlegging be stopped entirely for humanitarian reasons, if for none other."

Free-lance miners do not have social security and are not eligible for unemployment compensation benefits, Corgan added.

"Absorption by unions of the bootleggers coupled with strict enforcement of state and federal laws should eliminate illegal diggings in Pennsylvania," Corgan said.

The state mines department reported 1735 free-lance miners in 298 coal holes in the state.

Gen. Shimomura Denies Blame For Executing Airmen

Declares Three Doolittle Airmen
Were Executed By His Predecessor

TOKYO, Feb. 7.—(INS)—General Sadashi Shimomura — facing trial for war crimes in connection with the execution of three Doolittle airmen—today denied any responsibility for their deaths and tried to place the blame elsewhere.

He begged off surrendering immediately to authorities by reason of his asthma.

Shimomura declared the three airmen were tried and executed by his predecessor, Lt. Gen. Shigeru Sawada, on orders of the Jap imperial general headquarters.

Shimomura, commander of the Jap 13th army in China, said he will ask a postponement of his surrender to American military authorities because of his asthma. He added:

"However, if the doctor believes I can withstand the life in Sugamo prison, I am willing to give myself up at any time."

Shimomura claimed he hadn't "the slightest idea" why he had been named a suspected war criminal, contending he was "not connected whatsoever with the war trials" involving the executed American airmen.

Allied authorities have indicated Shimomura may be tried twice on different war crimes charges.

Shimomura, whose arrest was ordered yesterday by Gen. MacArthur, will be tried first by the international war crimes tribunal as a major war criminal charged with a part in Japan's policy of aggression.

Twenty months of T-S Stevenson's 26 month service record were spent in the European theater with the 79th division of the Fifth Army, seeing action in the Normandy, Northern France and Central European areas.

He received wounds in the Parroy Forest area which entitled him to wear the Purple Heart.

Other awards that comprise Keith's presentations by the army include three battle stars, Good Conduct medal, Victory medal and Combat Infantry badge.

He graduated from Wampum High in 1936 and was formerly employed by the National Tube company of Ellwood City.

Madonna Sodality Planning Dance

Event To Be Scheduled After Lenten Season By Madonna Sodality

A large group of the Madonna sodalists received communion in a body on Sunday, February 4, after which the regular monthly session was held in the church auditorium. The meeting was opened with a prayer, presided over by prefect, Wanda Slezek.

Virginia Fiedasz, the chairman of the eucharistic communion, read an article on "The Blessing of St. Blase". She also encouraged the sodalists to receive communion as often as possible during the season of Lent.

Our Ladies committee, Adeline Mateja, read the "Act of Consecration" from the little office books.

Since February is the Catholic Press month, Sister Mary Sylvia, moderator, gave an interesting talk on Catholic literature, and asked that every girl read as much Catholic literature as possible.

A dance is being held on April 27, with Betty Glasser as social chairman. The committee hopes to make this affair a success.

The next monthly meeting will be held on March 6, at 8:00 p. m.

Plan To Simplify Border Crossing

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—(INS)—A joint U. S.-Canadian committee met today to seek means of improving customs procedures between the two countries and simplify the movements of passengers, goods and vehicles across the border.

The commission will not deal with questions of policy or changes of the law of either country but rather with customs administration where adjustments in procedure would benefit both countries.

The committee will study customs arrangements at airports near the borders and for the entry of tourist aircraft.

A State department announcement said that further meetings will be held to maintain a regular exchange of information and opinions.

Civic Events Are Being Registered

One service which has been added to community life in New Castle is that recently instituted by the Greater New Castle Association and which has already been of value. It is a registration of all civic events to be held.

The purpose of the GNCA in registering events is to aid other groups of the city from scheduling meetings or projects for nights when previously scheduled activities will be held. In this way duplication will be avoided.

Organizations planning events are invited to get in touch with the GNCA and list their proposed activities and in so doing can check with the already scheduled list in order to see that no conflict results.

Air Power Is Prima Donna Of U. S. Navy Now

Navy Secretary Says Carrier Spearheads Fleet, As Battleship Once Did

By JOSEPH A. BORS
(N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7.—Secretary of the Navy James Forrestal said today that air power would play the leading role in the postwar navy comprised of powerful world-ranging fleets.

In his annual report to the President, Forrestal stated that aircraft carriers would spearhead the Atlantic and Pacific reserve fleets of nearly 900 vessels.

The Secretary stated that "air power has the main emphasis in the immediate postwar navy." He added:

"The carrier is today the spearhead of the modern fleet just as the battleship was 25 years ago."

Battlewagons Still Count

At the same time, however, Forrestal came to the defense of fast, modern battleships and sea-power generally. He stated that sea-air power was vital to victory and preservation of peace.

Forrestal's blueprint for the post-war navy listed 3,627 planes and 319 warships in the active Pacific and Atlantic fleets and 550 warships in the laid-up reserves.

In addition to the warships, Forrestal stated that the active fleets would also have transports and supply vessels capable of moving two and one-half divisions of fighting men.

Actually, the Pacific fleet will be composed of 250 vessels of all types, plus 31 in ready reserve and the Atlantic fleet of 214 ships and 48 in ready reserve. The remainder will be kept on a laid-up reserve basis.

Eighteen Flattops

The Pacific fleet will be made up of 18 carriers, two powerful 45,000-ton battleships, 20 cruisers, 81 destroyers, 16 destroyer escorts, 39 submarines and auxiliary vessels and transports.

In the Atlantic fleet he listed eight carriers, two 45,000-ton battleships, eight cruisers, 54 destroyers, 20 destroyer escorts, 51 submarines and other vessels.

Forrestal's emphasis on air power was indicated by the fact that carriers greatly outnumbered battleships in both the Pacific and Atlantic fleets.

Battleships listed in the Pacific fleet were the Iowa and New Jersey. Those for the Atlantic fleet were the Missouri and Wisconsin.

First-line carriers assigned to the Pacific were the Princeton, Coral Sea, Antietam, Kearsarge, Boxer, Oriskany, Tarawa, Valley Forge and Hancock, plus nine escort carriers.

U. S. Roosevelt in Atlantic

Only four first-line carriers were slated for Atlantic duty: the F. D. Roosevelt, Midway, Levine and Philippine Sea, plus four escort carriers.

Forrestal intimated that the post-war fleet was merely a temporary one and that changes might be expected as the result of anticipated developments.

He stressed the fact that the recent war against the Axis was not won by any one branch of the service. He stated:

"Seapower did not win this war. Neither did air power, and neither did ground forces. The war was won and the peace is being preserved through the combined striking power of all three, each force being utilized in accord with strategic demands."

The Secretary says the Navy still has 860 ships of all types, 1,750 planes and 213,368 officers and men engaged in enforcing peace on the Japanese.

Four jobs were listed by Forrestal for the postwar navy. Briefly, they were: enforcing terms of peace on our enemies; fulfilling our military commitments under the UNO; collaborating in preserving the integrity of the western hemisphere; providing the security of the United States.

Fireman Dies In Homestead Blaze

Trapped Under Debris—
Another Fireman Rescued After Being Under Debris For Hours

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 7.—(INS)—One fireman was saved and another dead today after a fire in a nearby Homestead hotel.

Hostess Joseph M. O'Hanlon was taken to a hospital where he was said to be in serious condition suffering from shock and exposure and from the ordeal of helplessly watching his companion die.

The dead man was James A. Grove, 44, a battalion fire chief's aide, who turned from his routine driving job to help control the blaze which had been raging for six hours in a three-story hotel.

Grove and O'Hanlon had been in the building only a short time when the second floor collapsed hurling them into the basement where they were entombed under the twisted timbers and wreckage.

Rescue Party Reaches Men

While others continued to fight the fire, a rescue party was formed immediately to search for the stricken men but it wasn't until three hours later that the party was able to locate them.

When finally located, O'Hanlon directed the workers in their task and also gave the first indication that Grove was dead by shouting:

"There must be something wrong with Grove. I keep calling to him but he doesn't answer."

O'Hanlon was found in a sitting position pinned under a bathtub.

John Quinn, 42, a volunteer fireman, was reported to have suffered a possible fractured skull and bruises when he was blown out of the doorway of the cafe. Three others were treated for minor injuries but later were released and returned to duty.

Fire Chief Herman Samuel estimated the damage at $100,000 and said an investigation was still underway to determine the origin of the blaze.

More than 20 families were forced to abandon the hotel and adjoining buildings.

Requiem Mass On Sunday Morning For Pfc. J. Conte

Former Co-Workers Of Young Air
Force Serviceman Offer Mass
At St. Vitus Church

A solemn high mass of requiem in repose of the soul of Pfc. John Conte, 19-year-old son of Mr. and

Pfc. John Conte

Mrs. Patsy Conte of 417 Bleakley avenue, will be offered Sunday morning, February 10, in St. Vitus church at 7:30 o'clock.

Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita, will be celebrating. Rev. Fr. Vincent O'Donnell, deacon and Rev. Fr. Francis Phyllis, sub-deacon.

The mass is being offered by Mr. and Mrs. M. Joseph and the employees of Joseph's market and former co-workers of Pfc. Conte.

Pfc. John Conte was killed on Wake Island January 21, 1944, as a result of a broken neck received in a vehicle accident. He died enroute to the hospital.

A military funeral was accorded the young serviceman, and a Catholic requiem mass. His burial was held at the same place, where a few civilians were buried, when the Japs invaded the island.

Pfc. Conte was inducted into the service January 19, 1945, at New Cumberland, Md. He received his wings in the Army Air Corps on June 24, 1945, at Keesler Field, Miss. This Home-Made Cough Syrup Beats Them All

So Easily Mixed! No Cooking.
Saves Big Dollars. Real Relief.

Yes indeed, this home-mixed cough syrup, made in your own kitchen, is one of the most effective things ever found for coughs due to colds. It's so easy to mix, a child could do it. And it saves good money, too.

Make a syrup by stirring 2 cups of granulated sugar and 1 cup of water a few moments, until dissolved. No cooking needed. Or you can use corn syrup or liquid honey, if desired.

Get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from your druggist, and put it into a pint bottle. Then fill the pint with your syrup.

Thus you make a pint—a family supply—of really excellent cough medicine. It gives you about four times as much for your money. Tastes fine—children love it—and it never spoils.

The way this simple mixture takes right hold of a cough, is truly surprising. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritation, eases soreness and difficult breathing, and lets you get restful sleep. You'll swear by it.

Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, known for its quick effect on throat and bronchial irritations. Just try it, and if not pleased in every way, your money will be refunded.

Service In European And

T-4 Floyd T. Cameron of R. D. No. 1 is another of the Edenburg district boys who have returned to their homes from the service of their country on foreign soils.

Entering service March 30, 1943, T-4 Cameron served in this country for seven months, then shipped to the European theater as a mechanic and truck driver for the Rhine-land and Central Europe.

Never receiving a furlough from the time he was inducted, Floyd spent two years and two months overseas, receiving the good conduct medal, meritorious unit award, with two bronze stars, victory medal, Carbine experts medal, auto mechanic badge and drivers badge.

His half-brother, Milton Reynolds, who has also received his discharge, entered service June 28, 1943 and served with the 394th Clearing Company of the 71st Medical Battalion as a truck driver evacuating wounded.

Seeing action in the Western Pacific and Southern Philippines, Milton obtained the Philippine liberation ribbon, Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with two bronze stars and the World War II victory medal.

Milton's length of service in the Army covers two years and six months, while his overseas record shows two years and one month.

Both boys are the sons of Mrs. Rodis Cameron, R. D. No. 1, Edenburg.

Local Drivers Lose Licenses

Information released by the bureau of highway safety of the department of revenue discloses that four New Castle motorists lost their driver's licenses during the week ending January 25.

Three of these revocations were caused by drunken driving, while the fourth man had his card taken when he failed to stop and identify himself after hitting a parked auto.

During the same period two city drivers had their licenses restored to them. Totals show that there were 232 cards withdrawn of which 47 were revoked and 185 suspended. Operating privileges were restored to 245 motorists.

Instructors Enjoy Valentine Party At First Aid Meeting

Approximately a dozen members of the Red Cross First Aid Instructors' club met in the local chapter house on Beaver street Wednesday evening for a business meeting and social period, accompanied by a few of the first chapters of a newly issued First Aid textbook.

In the absence of the president, the meeting was presided over by Vice President Mrs. Rex Hughes. Announcement was made of new classes in first aid, which are scheduled to be started very soon.

During the social period following the meeting, chapters of the new textbook, to be used in the new classes, were reviewed by Mrs. Plummer D. Gibson and Lewis Hanson, and group discussion was led by Harry Cullford.

Luncheon was served by candlelight, with valentine decorations enlivening the table. Hostesses for the evening were Miss Rosema McGurk and Mrs. P. D. Gibson, chairman of the first aid committee.

Club officers will be elected at the next meeting of the group, on Wednesday evening, March 6.

There are approximately 36,000 printing establishments in the U. S.

Claims Defense In Party Knifing

Steel Steps In As Jewelry For Milady's Neck And Ears

By VIRGINIA COOKSEY

(A N. S. Staff Correspondent)

CLEVELAND, Feb. 7.—The mighty men of steel proved their worth to the "little woman" long ago by bringing her kitchenware from rust to a 24-hour-a-day gleam.

But today their stainless steel is shining in her jewelry box. The realization of that innovation forced a concession—that it's no longer a "man's world"—from learned scientists and skilled technicians.

Bracelets and Lathes. The display of intricately designed and delicately fashioned jewelry is set in the midst of mighty forging hammers and powerful turret lathes at the national metal exposition in Cleveland's public hall.

With a look of startled amazement, industrial leaders watched smartly groomed girls model—for the first time—lustrous necklaces, bracelets, midriff belts, earrings, show buckles and feminine headbands—all of the same parentage as other exhibits at the nation's greatest industrial show.

The stunning accessories for milady are fabricated from the bright alloy usually associated with swift, streamlined trains and decorative automobile trim—and with sparkling rust-proof, non-tarnish kitchenware.

Gold Gets Competition. Exponents of this post-war re-conversion development promise stiff competition for conventional and expensive jewelry fashioned from such metals as silver, gold and platinum.

Stainless steel experts guaranteed that their "brunchchild" would capture the heart of the nation's best dressed women because it will still remain bright, marred by neither tarnish nor corrosion, when she passes it down to her granddaughters.

Although stainless steel is not malleable like silver and gold, certain grades can be formed, braided and twisted easily and it is readily joined by welding.

No Rust! Rustless research laboratory developed the electro-polishing process, accomplished by dipping the jewelry into a tank containing a warm citric-sulphuric solution through which an electric current is passed.

Actually, according to officials, a very thin layer of the metal is removed, leaving a brilliant permanent polish on the surface. The items displayed in Cleveland were designed and made by A. D. Celapino of Belle Vernon, Pa. Trial sales of his creations in a Pittsburgh department store proved them as desirable in the eyes of women as jewelry of the noble metals.

Although many of the pieces were described as initial experiments rather than a finely finished product ready for market, milady was given the promise that just as her scouring had ended in the kitchen, so will she soon—with the same ease—flash her gleaming jewelry.

6975Housing Shortage*Rated Most Crucial Problem Of Nation

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 7.—(INS)—The Federal Reserve Bank of Philadelphia contended today that a shortage of housing facilities in Pennsylvania and the nation is "by all odds" the "most crucial problem" facing the country.

"If materials and labor skills were available," the bank reported, "the construction industry could easily spend in the year ahead from $7 to $8 billion on new projects to meet a portion of the accumulated demand."

Strikes and the threat of strikes, according to the bank, continue to impede the production of goods "so urgently needed and are raising their costs when we get them."

"People buy whatever goods are available," the institution report continued, "and having the money, they pay almost any price."

The inevitable result is price gouging, black markets and open speculation.

The bank warned against inflation, emphasizing that the "current situation is fraught with unwholesome inflationary dangers."

"Practically all rationing has been discontinued and price controls are being relaxed," said the report. "The basic inflationary potential, however, is the huge buying power accumulated as a consequence of war financing. People have money and are willing to spend it."

Mother Of Quads Awaits Word She Can Be Married

Unwed Mother Of Quadruplets Anxiously Awaits Word From Father Of Her Children

By JAMES MILLER (U. S. Staff Correspondent)

HEANOR, England, Feb. 7.—(INS)—Norah Carpenter, unwed mother of quadruplets, waited anxiously today for direct word that the GI father of her children would be free to marry her.

Ex-Sergeant Bill (Red) Thompson, of Pittsburgh, has not written her yet that his wife has started divorce proceedings.

Norah received a letter from Bill. It was written a few days before Mrs. Thompson announced she was divorcing the ex-sergeant. Norah was severely disappointed because the last letter did not contain definite news.

She said: "We exchange air mail letters regularly. I'm sure the next letter will give me the wonderful news."

Looks Forward To New Home

Norah remains outwardly calm, but inwardly she is most excited. She is building rosy plans for the future and looking forward to all this trouble ending and being able to go to the United States.

She is living in two rooms behind a disused and dilapidated store. The rooms are poorly furnished and dreary, but scrupulously clean.

Norah is well, but thinner than of yore and cheaply dressed.

The three surviving quads are healthy and chubby. The girls are dressed in home made scotch plaid frocks. The boy wears dark blue rompers.

The children take frequent airings with their mother pushing them in one baby carriage. Norah remains aloof from the town at large.

A large photograph of Thompson dominates the home. Norah frequently shows the picture to the children, saying:

"That's daddy."

She reads fairy stories to the children and frequently weaves in tales about the United States.

Committee Plans For 'Brotherhood Week'

Arrangements for the observance of American Brotherhood week, beginning February 17, were discussed Wednesday afternoon by an inter-faith and inter-racial committee meeting in the library.

Under the chairmanship of Rev. Thomas J. Jones, the committee is planning a city-wide community gathering for the promotion of brotherhood. Students at the local senior high school have formed a brotherhood team which will appear before the service clubs of the city, according to Superintendent of Schools Frank L. Burton. Any other organization desiring the appearance of this team should call Mrs. Marjorie Nelson at the senior high school.

Managers of the city theaters are planning to exhibit a noteworthy feature during Brotherhood Week. It is hoped that the observance of brotherhood will become a daily activity instead of just a once-a-year celebration.

Final arrangements will be made at the next meeting, Wednesday afternoon, February 13, at 2 o'clock.

Thomas George Dies In Aliquippa

Word has been received by friends here of the death of Thomas George of Aliquippa, a former resident of this city, aged 71 years, in Sewickley hospital, Pittsburgh, Wednesday evening following a brief illness.

Survivors include his wife and four children, Mrs. William E. Snow of Fort Worth, Tex.; Mrs. Harold Watkins of Aliquippa; Robert George of New York City; Edmund George of Philadelphia and four sisters: Mrs. William Lloyd, Mrs. John Davies, Mrs. William J. Fowler and Mrs. Charles Smith, all of Aliquippa and five grandchildren.

Funeral services will be conducted from the Prosser funeral home on Franklin avenue, Aliquippa, Saturday afternoon. Interment will be in Woodlawn cemetery. The late Mr. George was formerly a member of the First Congregational church when a resident here.

Medical Society Meeting Tonight

This evening the members of the Lawrence County Medical society will hear Dr. Josiah Eisman, obstetrician, of Pittsburgh, speak on the subject, "The Management of Pregnancy."

Dr. Eisman is a member of the faculty at the University of Pittsburgh Medical school and on the staff at the Magee Maternity hospital.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Polio Cases Are Reported In State

HARRISBURG, Feb. 7.—(INS)—The state health department reported today that three persons have been stricken with infantile paralysis since January 1.

Dr. William D. Schrack, Jr., department epidemiologist, said two of the cases were in Lackawanna county and the other in Fayette county. In the same period of last year, four persons were afflicted with the disease.

NIGHT OWLS?

GREELEY, Colo.—(INS)—Records at the Greeley Hospital showed that more than 18 per cent of babies are born between 6 p. m. and daylight. The hospital, therefore, ordered new lighting equipment. Two sets of more powerful operating room lights will be installed, and each has standby storage battery units, for use in case of power failure.

POISON OR TOXIN

Canning is a good way to preserve food for future use. Fruit, vegetables and meat are used which would be wasted otherwise.

There is some danger if the processing is not successful. Sometimes the germs are not all killed. They multiply and make poisons or toxins.

ins. Some of these poisons are very dangerous.

If seems that these poisons are more likely to be found in the bland foods such as meat or corn.

When a can of such foods is opened, the food should be thoroughly heated before it is even tasted. Sometimes there is no indication that the food has spoiled. Even the least taste causes severe poisoning.

Heating destroys the poison.

Alleged Rackets In Auto Financing Being Investigated

Legislative Committee Conducting Probe In Sessions At Harrisburg

HARRISBURG, Feb. 7.—(INS)—The legislative committee investigating alleged rackets in automobile financing prepared to close a two-day session at Harrisburg today encouraged by initial results of the inquiry.

The committee feels that it has gotten some positive results from the investigation so far, said Chairman Franklin H. Lichtenwalter, House majority leader. "If legislation is passed setting a ceiling on interest rates we feel abusive practices by unscrupulous firms can be controlled."

Rates Revised

Several of the nine finance companies examined during yesterday's closed session reported they had revised rate schedules, according to Lichtenwalter. The firms were not identified.

Others, which had boosted rates to cover alleged dealer's kickbacks, claimed they were eliminating the "pack" allowances, he added.

Six alleged offenders were slated to appear today before the fact-finding committee, a sub-division of the joint state government commission.

"The major defense of these firms has been that they must meet the rates of their competitors," Lichtenwalter said. "One company reported losing $60,000 in business in one month when forced to scale down rates."

Blame Dealer Demands

"They all agreed they could operate at lower rates if it were not for the demands of dealers," he added.

Interest rates ran as high as 91 per cent in certain cases, he added.

Protests had been received against exorbitant charges asked by four Philadelphia firms, Lichtenwalter asserted. Others were summoned before the committee after failing to file December business reports.

The committee, he said, had studied 4522 supplemental car dealer forms issued December 1 by the State Revenue department in an effort to force dealers to disclose all expenses incurred in financing automobile sales.

Dealers have been invited to present their testimony during a hearing later this month, Lichtenwalter said, while public hearings will be conducted before the inquiry is completed.

The investigation was demanded by Gov. Edward Martin after reports had been received that ex-service men were being fleeced by unscrupulous car dealers.

New Hudson Autos Now Being Shown At Castle Garage

New 1946 Hudson automobiles, now being shown by the Castle Garage, 217 North Mill street, are winning instant approval due to the postwar advances in exterior and interior styling, mechanical efficiency and ease of operation, according to R. S. Rubenson, owner and manager.

Declaring that the new models fully meet the demand for better cars for better driving, Mr. Rubenson said that deliveries will be made as rapidly as possible as those placing the first orders will get the first cars. He added that present Hudson owners are well represented in those viewing the first cars built since the end of the war.

Mr. Rubenson has been advised by the factory that Hudson is in a unique position for production by reason for early reconversion, early orders for materials and an integrated plant that enables an unusual high percentage of the completed auto's components. He continued:

"The new models are being offered in two distinctly different 'style lines'—the Super series and the Commodore series, each available with six or eight cylinder engines."

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

(The International Uniform Lesson on the above topic for February 10 is Numbers, the Memory Verse being Isaiah 12:2, "I will trust, and will not be afraid for Jehovah, even Jehovah, is my strength.")

The whole book of Numbers is assigned as our lesson today, but it is too long to treat of here in its entirety. The book is a record of the Israelites' murmurings against their Lord who had done so much for them, and of His servant, Moses, who had been God's chosen leader to take them out of their bondage in Egypt, and his intercession for them with the Lord.

In the 13th chapter of Numbers it is written, "And Jehovah spake unto Moses, saying,

"Send thou men, that they may spy out the land of Canaan, which I give unto the children of Israel: of every tribe of their fathers shall ye send a man, every one a prince among them."

"And Moses sent them to spy out the land of Canaan, and said unto them, Get you up this way by the South, and go up into the hill country:

"And see the land, what it is; and the people that dwell therein, whether they are strong or weak, whether they are few or many;

Good Land Or Bad

"And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it is good or bad; and what cities they are that they dwell in, whether in camps, or in strongholds."

"And what the land is, whether it is fat or lean, whether there is wood therein, or not. And be ye of good courage, and bring of the fruit of the land. Now the time was the time of the first ripe grapes."

There were 12 men selected to spy on the land, one from each tribe but the Levites, so to make the number 12, what would be the tribe of Joseph was divided into two parts, Manasseh and Ephraim, his sons.

These men went out to spy the land of Canaan, and they came back bringing great bunches of grapes and reported that "surely it floweth with milk and honey; and this is the fruit thereof." However, all but two who went also found that "the people that dwell in the land are strong, and the cities are fortified, and very great; and moreover we saw the children of Anak there." The Anakites were giants. These men had no faith in the Lord, they were frightened at what they had seen, and did not want to attack the Canaanites.

Caleb and Joshua, however, thought differently. They wanted to go in and take the land because they had faith in the Lord who would see that the victory was theirs. For this the people of Israel were bent on stoning them.

Jehovah was thoroughly angry: "How long will this people despise Me? How long will they not believe in Me, for all the signs which I have wrought among them?" He asked Moses, "I will smite them with the pestilence, and disinherit them, and will make of thee a nation greater and mightier than they."

Moses asks for pardon.

But Moses pointed out that if the Lord failed in making a great nation of the Israelites after taking them from Egypt, and if He was to kill them all, the Egyptians would say, "He was unable to make a great nation of them." He asked for pardon for his people and the Lord granted it, but said these men who had no faith in their Lord after seeing all His works, surely would never see the promised land. But Caleb, because he had another spirit with him, and hath followed Me fully, him will I bring into the land whereto he went."

Realizing their blunder, the people of Israel mourned for their sins, and then made up their minds to attack Canaan then and there. Moses knew that the time for striking the blow had passed and that such an undertaking would fail, but they determined to go up, even without the Ark of the Covenant.

"Then the Anakites came down, and the Canaanites which dwell in the hill, and smote them, and discomfited them, even unto Hormah."

Later in the book of Numbers the Israelites rebelled against Aaron as their priest, Korah, son of Izhar and 250 princes rose up against Moses and Aaron, telling them that they took too much upon themselves. They would not obey Moses, and for this Korah and all his family and household were caught in a great earthquake in which the ground opened beneath them and they all perished.

Truly the people of Israel were a stiff-necked people who soon forgot the inestimable benefits they received and sorely tried Jehovah. But Moses grew in stature as a leader of these people as the time went on—truly a great man of the Lord!

ELEMENTARY,

my dear Watson!

Here's a problem for you, Watson. What living cost has DECREASED while nearly all other costs have gone right on rising?

Are there any clues, Holmes?

My dear Watson, the answer is at your finger-tip. What else gives you twice as much for your money as it did 20 years ago? What else is ready day or night, winter or summer, to lighten your tasks and make life more comfortable for you? What else gives you so much service for just a few pennies a day? What else, my dear Watson, but Electric Service?

Yes, Holmes—but WHODUNIT?

Elementary, my dear Watson. Electric service—dependable and cheap—is the result of hard work and experience on the part of the men and women of your electric company—under sound business management.

Jack 'Outfoxed' Jess' Handlers

"Prof." McCartney Says Dempsey Used Lots Of Bandage, Hardened It By Pounding

By BILL CORUM
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—Now that the old wives' tale about the tape inside Jack Dempsey's gloves on the steaming hot Jess Willard afternoon that he knocked out Jess Willard at Toledo has become news again, let us tell you another yarn that the professor of pugilism told us not long ago.

The professor, as perhaps you know, is none other than Sir William McCartney, the celebrated cauliflower scientist from the Ould Sod of Philadelphia.

At the time of the spinning of the yarn, neither of us had any idea that Willard would be coming back from a U. S. O. trip to Europe and stop over in our city to give out a story indicating that even now, 27 years later, he still isn't sure that the Manassa man didn't tap him with the "tea leaves" that memorable day on Maumee Bay.

I make this clear to show that the professor was not indulging in any sort of propaganda, pro or con, but was simply telling about what happened as he saw it and remembered it. To tell the truth, I had heard the story that Dempsey had a little extra help in the shape of his bandages in that fight so often since the first time I heard it long ago, that I discounted it as being newsworthy. Or even of passing interest.

Now, however, that Willard himself has permitted himself to be quoted by two accurate and first rate reporters, the professor's yarn about the cotton inside Jack's gloves may be worth re-telling as McCartney told it to me.

The way it came up in the first place was that Billy had been receiving with some pride how he himself had outfoxed Mickey Walker on the night the Toy Bulldog took on Max Schmeling in the Long Island City bout.

Trick Worked, Billy Says

"And I'll tell you something else, Billy," continued the old professor, "Dempsey no more had tea leaves or plaster of Paris dust in his glove against Willard than you have such a thing in your pocket right now. Dempsey himself foxed Ray Archer and Walter Monihan, who were acting for Willard in his dressing room before the fight, to get just the bandage he wanted, and as hard as he wanted it, by as slick a trick as I've ever seen in boxing."

"When Jack started bandaging his hands," either Archer or Monihan, I forget which, complained that he had too much bandage and tape. "Oh," said Dempsey to them, very politely. "You fellows never saw me bandage my hands, did you? Watch this carefully now and I'll show you to really put on a bandage and maybe it will help you with a fighter some time in the future."

"So," continued Billy, "with both those dopes looking on wide-eyed and impressed that Jack was being so nice to them, the champ the wasn't then but soon was to be and some will always call Dempsey that calmly put on bandage, pounding it heavily in his palm each time he wound it saying to these guys, 'See, this is the way you do it.' It finally was hard enough to knock down a brick wall. Especially with the Dempsey of that afternoon on the sending end. But there was no tea lead. No plaster of Paris dust, Archer and Monihan saw exactly what was done and nodded sagely when the job was done."

"Perfectly legal and according to Hoyle," said the professor. And then added reflectively and with the light of admiration and reminiscence in his eye: "But I will say that they were about as sweet a pair of bandages that it ever has been my pleasure to see."

Irish To Battle New York Passers

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Feb. 7.—(INS)—New York university's basketball forces may beat Notre Dame in their sellout collegiate cage clash at Gotham's Madison Square Garden Saturday night.

And then again, the Irish may beat themselves. This was the dour prospect which faced Notre Dame's talented coaching craftsman, Elmer Ripley, as he put his "big six" through the final stages of preparation prior to their departure for New York City.

Nominate 520 For Two Big Races

CHICAGO, Feb. 7.—(INS)—Arlington and Washington Park today listed no fewer than 520 nominees for their two outstanding stakes for juvenile fillies this summer. The Arlington lassie has drawn 261 nominations and the Princess Pat 259. Each of the stakes has been boosted in value from $20,000 to $25,000, with the estimated gross placed by the operators of the two tracks at approximately $50,000.

"Perfectly legal and according to Hoyle," said the professor. And then added reflectively and with the light of admiration and reminiscence in his eye: "But I will say that they were about as sweet a pair of bandages that it ever has been my pleasure to see."

Fair Or Foul

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, Feb. 7.—At a time when virtually everybody is giving the St. Louis Cardinals the 1946 National league pennant by vociferous acclamation, (some language) Warren Giles wishes it known that the Cincinnati Reds are doing business at the same old stand.

Any time baseball people find themselves in a crowd of two or more they most likely will be telling about the way the Cardinals will have the opposition jumping out of the bell parks this summer.

Loaded With Talent

What pitching... What fielding... What hitting... Why, just look at those Cardinals, loaded from top to bottom with such talent that the other club-owners just sit around eyeing that roster hungrily and wishing that Sam Breadon would drop a morsel here and there. Giles, general manager of the Reds and one of baseball's better minds and men, said:

"All I hear is about what those Cardinals will do to everybody. I'll admit only that the may prove to be the team to beat. But we are not going to run off and hide. We will open the season as usual. And when the talk about all that Cardinal talent and the way they could sell Walker Cooper for $175,000 and still have the necessary catching I would like to say one thing or two.

Have Good Catching

"With Cooper gone, I wouldn't take $150,000 in cash from the Cardinals and trade catching staffs. That's what I think of our catching."

Giles declined to be drawn into a rejoinder on my remark that what good is catching if you haven't got any pitchers. All he said was that he would have some pitchers in keeping with baseball custom.

The Red catching staff will include Ray Mueller, Ray Lamman and Al Lakeman. Mueller and Lamman are just back from the service and will be remembered as fair hands before they left baseball.

Reds Are Building

Giles wanted to make sure that he wasn't misquoted in saying that the Reds will win the pennant. They have only a handful of men left from the 1939 and 1940 championship clubs. They are trying to build back to that peak again.

Gabe Paul, the man not the horse by the same name, threw in a note of enthusiasm and confidence in behalf of the Reds by suggesting that maybe some of these Cardinals we are hearing so much about won't stand up next summer.

Big Question Mark

Paul, who is secretary, charge d'affairs and one thing and another for the Reds, is regarded among the better young minds and young men of the game.

He said:

"You can figure it out for yourself that nobody knows for sure what he is taking to spring camp. The big question mark centers around how well the returning veterans will be able to play. The Cardinals have at least their share of that problem. The names look good on paper, but I never saw a piece of paper catch an outfield line drive, start a double play or single sharply to right with the bags loaded."

Power Strike In Eastern Penna. Held In Abyeance

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Feb. 7.—(INS)—A power blackout in 28 eastern Pennsylvania counties scheduled to get under way was held in abeyance today by the Utility Workers of America (UAW).

Officers of 12 union locals met last night at Wilkes-Barre with Harold J. Straub of New York, vice-president and organizational director, and agreed to withhold the strike call pending a review by the National Labor Relations Board of a regional board's decision.

The union's action came after U. S. Secretary of Labor Samuel H. Hays called upon the union in a telegram to postpone the walkout.

The union, which had lost a plant election among approximately 4500 employees, fixed no time limit for the NLRB to return a decision.

At Harrisburg, Gov. Edward Martin indicated his satisfaction that the strike had been postponed. The governor, who had promised to use every state agency to protect the health and welfare of the public, said:

"I am very much pleased. Because this is the orderly way in which disputes of this nature should be settled."

Kiwanians Hear Dr. Henderson On Republic's Needs

Local Surgeon, Member Of George Junior Republic Board, Tells Of Work Done There

Dr. Earl G. Henderson, member of the board of directors of George Junior Republic, at Grove City, gave Kiwanis club members an insight into the fine work being done there, in order to acquaint the club members with the need for the building fund, which the local service clubs will campaign for next week.

Lawrence county has been asked to raise $7,000 as its share of the $100,000 needed.

At the close of Dr. Henderson's talk, which was most informative, President Kenneth Beck announced the names of the committee, who will meet with the board of directors, Thursday, to complete plans for the Kiwanis club's share in the drive. They are: Thomas G. Allen, chairman, R. L. Meermans, William G. Hanna, Clement D. Parker, E. L. Marvin, M. Dale Andrews, Frank Strizzi, Wayne Hart, and Charles E. McGrath.

Sgt. Charles E. McGrath, Jr., son of Kiwanian Charles E. McGrath, was a guest of the club. Sgt. McGrath has just returned after two years in Italy, where he was with the American Expeditionary stations, radio stations which were set up in the territory occupied by the American troops to keep them informed and entertained.

SKILLS ACQUIRED EARLY IN LIFE ARE LONG LASTING

Start the children out early in acquiring skills in hobbies and sports, is the suggestion of Miss Marguerite Little, extension child care specialist of the Pennsylvania State College.

The time to introduce children to sports that will afford them pleasure throughout life is when their muscles are supple and their interest in activity is high, she says. Lack of self-consciousness is a quality of childhood that makes it a good time for learning sports.

Sports that a person can carry on individually will serve him throughout life. Such sports are swimming, skiing, skating, golfing, horseback riding, hiking, fishing, tennis, handball and fencing.

When parents are interested in a particular sport, it is easy for them to pass their interest on to their children. These parents also realize how much pleasure and benefit they have received from participation in their sport and so encourage their children to take it up. They also can help them acquire skills.

Children need guidance in their play to help them develop skills that will insure play being a part of their entire life.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes which filter the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent, excessive passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep. When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging lumbago, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
